NEWS FROM MANILLA.

Admiral Dewey Desires Additional Warships.

TWO SPANISH GARRISONS

Have Surrendered to the Insurgent Filipinos.

INTERVIEW WITH AGUINALDO.

The Leader of the Native Forces Does Not Answer Questions Directly, but Intimates That the Inhabitants Expect Independence.

Manilla, Sept. 13.—Rear Admiral Dewey says he considers the situation critical. It is understood he has asked for an additional cruiser and a battleship.

The Spaniards assert that Germany will take a coaling station here and that Spain will retain the remainder of the islands.

The last Spanish garrisons at Ilocos and Laguna have surrendered and the whole island of Luzon is in the hands of the insurgents, except at Manila and Cavite.

Aguinaldo went to Lellollos on Friday. He has announced his intention of convening an assembly of the Filipinos on September 15, in order to decide upon the policy to be adopted by the insurgents.

The correspondent here had an interview with Aguinaldo who said there were 67,000 insurgents armed with rifles. He added he could raise 100,000 men. Indeed, the insurgent leader pointed out, the whole population of the Philippine islands was willing to fight for their independence.

Continuing, Aguinaldo said he had 9,000 military prisoners, including 5,000 in the vicinity of Manila, besides civil prisoners.

Later Aguinaldo said the "provisional government" was now operating 28 provinces. He asserted that on August 2 they elected delegates, in numbers proportionate to the population.

As to the Americans, Aguinaldo remarked that he considered them as brothers and that "the two sovereign republics were allied against a common enemy."

When questioned as to whether the future Filipino policy would be absolute independence, Aguinaldo excused himself from replying, and asked what America intends to do.

The correspondent being unable to answer this question, Aguinaldo continued: "We have been fighting for independence for a long time. The natives who professed to favor annexation are insincere. It is merely a ruse to ascertain the American view."

Asked if the Filipinos would object to the retention of Manila, Aguinaldo declined to answer. "Would the Filipinos object to Americans retaining a coaling station, if recognizing the independence of the islands or establishing a temporary protectorate over them?"

Aguinaldo again refused to answer. Pending the conclusion of the assembly, Aguinaldo said, he was confident there would be no trouble between America and the Filipinos.

The insurgent leader denied having received a request from General Otis and Rear Admiral Dewey to withdraw his troops to a prescribed distance from Manila and Cavite and he declined to discuss the effect of such a request.

The whole interview conveyed the impression that Aguinaldo desires absolute independence, regards the mission of the American here as accomplished and expects their withdrawal, "just as the French with Lafayette withdrew after helping the Americans in the war of independence, a war of humanity."

Winter Hospital Nearly Ready.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Surgeon General Sternberg furnishes some interesting details of the plans of the war department, referred to by Secretary Alger, for the establishment of two large, well equipped winter hospitals for the troops. He said that without attracting much attention the medical department had for some time been at work erecting such a hospital on the government reservation at Fort Monroe, and he was pleased to be able to announce that Lieutenant Colonel Woodhull, the surgeon in charge, had reported that the hospital would be ready for the reception of troops next Friday.

Cuban Garrison.

Washington, Sept. 13.—General Miles said that the troops to constitute the garrison of Cuba had not been selected.

They would consist of regulars, immunes and volunteers, though it was not possible now to even tell just what the proportions would be.

Will Modify Regulations.
Washington, Sept. 13.—Since the government has come into possession of transports which will be retained permanently it is believed to be necessary to amend and amplify the old regulations governing the conduct of troops on such vessels.

Not Made Public.
San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 13.—The two evacuation commissions held an hours' session and adjourned until Wednesday. The American commissioners made known their position regarding the evacuation in accordance with their instructions from Washington. These instructions they decline to make public at present, as publicity might lead to embarrassment in negotiations, but the Spanish commissioners did not disclose their positions nor the nature of their instructions.

Not Dependent on Railroads.
Washington, Sept. 13.—Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn gave out an extract from the proposal of W. E. Baldwin, jr., president of the Long Island Railway company, which has the contract for transporting the troops from Camp Wikoff. He made this public, to disprove the statement that the government was dependent on the Long Island railway alone for transportation purpose, when as a matter of fact any vessel in the employ of the war department could engage in the work.

Miss Barton at Washington.
Washington, Sept. 13.—Miss Clara Barton and party reached Washington from Tampa, Fla. The party is here waiting orders, and may be sent either to the Philippines or Porto Rico. It is said that Miss Barton will make to the president a detailed statement of the action of the Spanish authorities in refusing to allow the Red Cross to land cargoes of supplies at Havana.

Sudden Death.
Nyack, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Ralph Perry Smith of battery A, Pennsylvania light artillery, died suddenly at his home here, aged 21 years. He arrived in New York from Porto Rico Saturday on the transport Mississippi, suffering from dysentery and jaundice. He was graduated from Princeton college in June last, enlisted in battery A and went to Porto Rico August 3.

Should Keep Philippines.
Washington, Sept. 13.—Mr. Charles Denby, former minister of the United States to China, arrived here from Peking and in the afternoon paid his respects to the president. On leaving the White House, Mr. Denby, in answer to inquiries, said that in his judgment the United States should retain permanent possession of all, or practically all of the Philippine Islands.

A Lawful Prize.
Charleston, S. C., Sept. 13.—In the United States district court here, Judge Bramley handed down a decision condemning the British steamship New Foundland and its cargo to forfeiture as a lawful prize of war. The ship was captured by the Mayflower while seemingly attempting to run the blockade at Havana on the evening of July 19 and sent here.

Parade Abandoned.
Washington, Sept. 13.—The plan of having a parade in New York of the troops returning from Porto Rico and those at Montauk Point has been indefinitely postponed. This is the result of the conference on the subject between the president and General Miles and of consultations with army officers in New York and Camp Wikoff.

General Hospitals.
Washington, Sept. 13.—The post hospital at Washington barracks, District of Columbia, at the Sternberg and Sanger field hospitals at Chickamauga park and the military hospital at Ponce, Porto Rico, have been designated as general hospitals and are placed under the exclusive control of the surgeon general of the army.

Only Two Regiments Left.
Chickamauga, Ga., Sept. 13.—Only two regiments of the Camp Thomas army remain at Chickamauga park, the Ninth Minnesota and the Sixth United States volunteer infantry immunes. The Second Kentucky left for Lexington, where they will be paid off and furloughed for 30 days.

Orders Expected.
New York, Sept. 13.—Orders are expected at the Brooklyn navy yard any time for the sailing of the battleships Oregon and Iowa for the Pacific. Ammunition is being put on board of both ships and they will begin coaling at once. They will be painted the regulation lead color.

To Quit the Service.
Washington, Sept. 13.—The First Georgia infantry, now at Knoxville, has been ordered mustered out. The companies will be mustered out at their various homes.

INSURGENTS' VESSELS

Said to Have Been Sunk by Spanish Gunboats.

MANY NATIVES PERISHED.

Important Message Received From the Philippines, Describing the Conflict Between Spaniards and Their Opponents.

Madrid, Sept. 13.—Captain Aunon, minister of marine, received an important dispatch from the Philippines describing a conflict between the Spanish gunboats and an insurgent flotilla, in which the former successfully prevented an insurgent landing the Vicayas.

According to the dispatch the insurgents had five vessels, all of which were sunk. The Spaniards had no loss, but the telegram asserts that hundreds of the insurgents are believed to have perished.

A Stormy Session.
Madrid, Sept. 13.—The session of the senate was stormy. Count D'Almeida, challenged to give the names of the generals who he recently said ought to be disgraced, replied: "Very well, as you wish it, I will. The generals to whom I referred are General Weyler, General Blanco and General Primo de Rivera. I will also include in the same category Admiral Cervera."

Spanish Prisoners Sail For Home.
Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 13.—Most of the sailors and marines who survived the disaster which befell the warships of Admiral Pascual Cervera, at Santiago, July 3, were taken from Seavey's island to the steamship City of Rome. Admiral Cervera, with his son, Angel, made farewell visits to the officers of the navy yard previous to boarding the City of Rome. On his way to the boat the admiral spoke enthusiastically of the treatment the Americans had accorded to the Spanish prisoners, to his staff and to himself. He said he would carry home with him many happy recollections of the kindness and generosity of those high in official circles, as well as of citizens in every walk of life.

Sons of Veterans.
Omaha, Sept. 13.—The seventeenth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans was called to order in this city by Senior Vice Commander George E. Cogshall of Grand Rapids, Mich., in the absence of Commander-in-Chief Charles K. Darling of Boston, who is in Porto Rico in command of the Sixth Massachusetts volunteers. About 150 delegates responded to the rollcall. There will be a fight over commander-in-chief, for which office there are three prominent candidates—W. S. Oberderf of New York, Colonel Shepard of Illinois, and Lieutenant Governor Jones of Ohio. There are three cities after the next encampment—Denver, San Francisco and Boston.

Sifting the Matter to the Bottom.
Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 13.—Colonel E. S. Dudley, United States army, is here making an investigation of the shooting of Spanish prisoners on board the auxiliary cruiser Harvard, which occurred just before the vessel left Cuba for Seavey's island. He is taking testimony of the marines and the Spanish prisoners, and also had a long conference with Admiral Cervera on the matter. The shooting was the outcome of a dispute between a number of the prisoners and several privates of the Ninth Massachusetts regiment, who were on board.

Washing Views Out.
Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—At the afternoon session of the Laundrymen's association, the local committee reported a program of entertainments for each evening of the week. The annual report of the executive board was presented. Many resolutions were offered and referred. A paper by C. A. Royce of Springfield, Mass., on "Sanitation," was read by C. R. Fletcher of Boston. A T. Hager of Rochester read a paper on "An Efficient Delivery System." Both papers were followed by general discussions.

Place of Residence.
Havana, Sept. 13.—The American evacuation commissioners it is thought probable will select places of residence during the stay of the commission at El Vedado, a beautiful village, five miles west of Havana on the coast, just beyond Punta Brava. There is excellent sea bathing at the place. The neighborhood is aristocratic and there is regular steam transit between the village and the city.

Will Not Disturb the Churches.
Rome, Sept. 13.—The pope received in audience Monsignor Sbarretti, auditor of the papal legation at Washington, who reported that the United States is disposed to respect church property in Cuba and the Philippine islands.

REFORM SCHOOL.

The Kentucky Commission Will Select a Building Site.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 13.—A meeting of the state reform school commission will be held here next Tuesday to select the site upon which the $100,000 school building is to be erected. A farm within five miles of Lexington will be selected and the foundation of the building put in immediate preparatory to beginning the erection of the school in early spring.

Sequence of Tragedies.

Indianapolis, Sept. 13.—While Mrs. Corneliuss Driscoll of this city was attending the funeral of Howard Hansing, her cousin who was murdered Saturday night by George White, her 5-year-old daughter picked up a flobert rifle to amuse her 4-months-old brother who was crying. In some manner which the child was unable to explain, the gun was discharged. The bullet struck the boy in the forehead causing instant death. The accident happened at the home of a relative a short distance from the house where the body of Hansing lay.

Mail in the Grass.
McKinney, Ky., Sept. 13.—W. D. Gooch, a section foreman, found a package of letters and other mail containing money and checks in the grass near the track at South Fork, supposed to have been thrown by accident from a mail train.

Turner Case Dismissed.
Pineville, Ky., Sept. 13.—The case against John S. Turner, charged with shooting Frank Ball, was dismissed for lack of prosecution, the material witnesses in the case failing to appear.

Battleships to Go to the Pacific.
Washington, Sept. 13.—The navy department is shifting some of the officers on the battleships Oregon and Iowa preparatory to their departure from New York on their long cruise to San Francisco by way of the straits of Magellan. The department has just selected from among the fleet of colliers acquired during the war four of the best and largest to accompany the battleships on their long run. No attempt is to be made to drive the ships so as to equal the famous run of the Oregon coming eastward.

Troops Kept Under Arms.
Manilla, Sept. 13.—Irritation, induced by the aggressive attitude of certain irresponsible native leaders, acting in defiance to Aguinaldo's orders, has become so serious that troops are now kept in barracks under arms, ready for action at a moment's notice. A feeling of insecurity and unrest exists. Many native workmen are daily leaving their employers with the open intention of joining the rebels. Hundreds who are now on strike in cigar factories and other establishments are recruiting Aguinaldo's ranks.

Yellow Fever Situation.
Jackson, Miss., Sept. 13.—The yellow fever situation is comparatively quiet. No new cases developed. The panic which struck the city Saturday subsided, and many who fled at the first alarm have returned to the city. Dr. Carter of the marine hospital service has taken partial control, and is now arranging to fumigate and disinfect the mails. The patient, Killgore, has the black vomit, and it is thought will die.

A Sudden Summons.
Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 13.—Hon. Henry Clay Tompkins was taken suddenly ill in his office and died in a few minutes. Heart failure, due to acute indigestion, was the cause. He was for three terms attorney general of Alabama and ranked among the ablest lawyers of the south. He has been for a dozen years a prominent figure in the meetings of the American Bar association.

Hospital Regulation.
Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Sept. 13.—Chief Surgeon Girard has issued a circular advising the surgeons of the corps to avoid, whenever possible, the practice of sending sick soldiers to the hospital at all hours of the day and night. His scheme is to keep the invalids in the regimental hospitals over night and send them to the general hospitals in the morning.

May Visit Sioux City.
Washington, Sept. 13.—A formal invitation was extended to the president by the Mondamin Carnival association to visit Sioux City during the annual carnival in October. The president replied that he would try to arrange to spend a few hours in Sioux City during his western trip, but he could give no assurance of his acceptance of the invitation.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The Peruvian legation at Washington has received a cablegram from Lima stating that there is no revolution in the country. In some places bands of marauders have appeared who were dispersed on the approach of the government troops sent to pursue them. Peru is in the state of complete quiet, which it has enjoyed for some years.

EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA

Attends Mass in the Private Chapel of Palace.

ACCOMPANIED BY DAUGHTER

Numerous Messages of Sympathy Are Personally Attended to by His Majesty, Who Also Looks After State Affairs.

Vienna, Sept. 13.—The Emperor of Austria and his daughter attended mass in the private chapel of the Schoenbrunn palace.

His majesty showed evidences of intense grief, but he said he did not lose faith in God. He expressed a wish for confession and communion.

During the day the emperor recalled with much emotion a passage in the last letter he received from the empress, in which she expressed herself with being pleased with the prospect of returning to Vienna in a few days to witness the Jubilee festivities.

His majesty attended the usual state duties and insisted upon attending personally to the numerous messages of sympathy he has received since the death of the empress.

Sketch of the Assassin.

Geneva, Sept. 13.—On the order of a magistrate the assassin of Empress Elizabeth was taken from St. Anthony prison to the Anthropometrical institute, where he was measured and photographed. Photographs were given to the press and will be distributed to the police in the cities where he lived. In the course of a second examination as to his history and the motives for the crime, he said he had never known his father or mother. He was brought up at Parma, Italy, in a charity school, and at the age of 10 was thrown on the streets without resources. He worked as an unskilled laborer until he was 20; then he served in the Italian army three years and a half. On leaving his regiment he was employed as the valet de chambre of the Prince of Aragon for three months. At this time anarchist ideas began to possess his mind, and, to use his words, "prevented me from remaining in servitude."

Spanish Warships Delayed.
Ponce, Porto Rico, Sept. 13.—The report of the hurricane at the island of Barbadoes has delayed the sailing of the Spanish warships for Spain. All ships on this station are safe in the harbors. The Cincinnati and New Orleans are here. Six naval cadets who were on board the Cincinnati are to be sent to Annapolis by the Seneca, which sails on Tuesday with signal corps men, who are to be mustered out.

Immune Shot to Death.
Galveston, Sept. 13.—Edward Alex Calaghan, a private in the First United States volunteers (immune), was shot to death, and his companion, Jack Elliott, a civilian, was wounded in the abdomen. Harry Owens, a supernumerary policeman, surrendered himself. He says he attempted to arrest the men who had imposed upon a little boy and they threw him down, kicked him and began knifing him.

National Naval Reserve.
Chicago, Sept. 13.—A movement for the creation of a national naval reserve, with the Illinois naval militia as the nucleus, has been started in this city by local naval officers. Lieutenant Commander John M. Hawley, head of the recruiting department of the United States navy and officers of the Illinois Naval Reserve association, and the militia are enthusiastically in favor of the project.

The Midway No More.
Chickamauga, Ga., Sept. 13.—The Midway at Lytle, which has been the scene of so much turmoil during the summer, is now a thing of the past. Two last of the small shops have been closed, the majority of the shop men going to other camps. The work of cleaning up the park is progressing rapidly. The refuse is being burned and great quantities of disinfectants are being used.

Yellow Fever in Porto Rico.
Ponce, Porto Rico, Sept. 13.—The army surgeons here believe there has been a genuine case of yellow fever at this camp. Charles Miner, a private of the Nineteenth infantry, recently died, but it was not until the autopsy was held that surgeons pronounced it yellow fever. Brigadier General Guy V. Henry has reported the case to General Brooke at San Juan.

No Decision in Dreyfus Case.
Paris, Sept. 13.—President Faure retired Colonel Du Paty de Clam at the suggestion of the minister for war, General Zurlinden. Two cabinet meetings have considered the question of a revision of the Dreyfus case, and adjourned until Saturday at the request of the minister of justice, M. Sarrien, who is desirous of more time in which to consider the documents.

REORGANIZATION AND REFORM NEEDED.

One of our exchanges reports the recent appointment of a youthful graduate of a western medical school to the surgical service of the army, "on the application" of a physician who is rather conspicuous and influential in the medical politics of the day. If this appointment has been made simply upon "recommendation" from the source named the complaints in regard to our army medical service in the South and at Santiago are easily understood; and under each a system of appointment as foreshadowed by this announcement, the shameful irregularities will never be corrected.

The average graduate of an average American school is not competent to discharge the duties of such a position. Eighty per cent. of the applicants before the regular army examining boards are turned down, and very recently in an examination before a State Board of Examiners five out of twenty applicants failed who were graduates of a so-called first-class Eastern school.

It must be remembered, too, that the medical politician in the matter of recommendation is not over-scrupulous, and, hence, as likely as not, the national medical service will soon be flooded with a lot of characterless and incompetent appointees who have failed in the civil walks of life.

There should be reorganization and reform here as elsewhere.

CLOSING OF THE CONFERENCE.

Resolutions Adopted at Monday's Session of the Methodists—Other Business Transacted.

At the opening of Monday's session of the Kentucky M. E. Conference the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That we are gratified to have Bishop W. X. Ninde as our presiding officer. His fairness and kindness, as well as his firmness and judicial decision, have won our highest appreciation and love, and we will be glad at any time to have him return to us as our Chief Superintendent.

2. That Thomas Hanford, D. D., is entitled to and we hereby extend to him our sincere thanks for his loyalty and faithfulness during so many years as the Secretary of this conference, and assure him of our continued confidence and esteem.

3. That we extend our thanks to the Secretary and his assistants, to the Treasurer and to all who have been called upon as the servants of the conference in statistical work for the very faithful performance of their respective duties.

4. That we do most earnestly protest as a conference against the adoption of the report of the Commission on Methodist Federation, in its present form, by our approaching General Conference. As we understand its provisions, and our people understand them, it is calculated to work irreparable mischief in the further prosecution of our work within the bounds of the Kentucky Conference.

5. That we commend to our people the Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess' Home and Christ's Hospital at Cincinnati as every way worthy of their patronage and support, of contributions of money and donations of supplies, and we request every pastor to observe the first Sunday before Thanksgiving in a special service in its behalf.

6. That it affords us peculiar pleasure to declare our indebtedness to Rev. F. W. Harrop, pastor of the church, and to his loyal boards, committees, membership and friends for the abounding hospitality and kindness which have characterized the entertainment of the conference. May God bless pastor and people and the good citizens of Maysville who have shared in this service of love and fellowship.

7. That we most heartily thank the Electric Street Railway Company of Maysville for the free use of their lines during the session of the conference.

8. That we devoutly thank God that the cause of the absence of our beloved brother, R. T. Miller, from the two sessions of our conference just passed has been removed and that we have again enjoyed his presence and valuable counsel and co-operation.

The transfer of H. W. Ewing, of the Wilmington conference, was noted.

The Bishop read the proposition of the Rock River Conference for constitutional change on equal lay and ministerial representation in the General Conference. The conference voted in favor of the proposition, 42 for to 14 against.

Claude F. Lucas was ordained a deacon and elected to traveling deacon's orders, and was then ordained by the Bishop.

Rev. D. P. Holt was appointed on Board of Conference Examiners.

It was after 12 o'clock when the Bishop read the appointments, (or disappointments as one brother remarked). Before doing so he led the conference in earnest prayer. He prefaced the reading with a few remarks commending the ministers of the conference for their zeal and devotion to the cause, and praying God's blessings on them. The list of appointments was published Monday.

The conference closed with the doxology, and benediction by the Bishop.

Most of the visiting ministers departed for their homes on the afternoon trains, and the rest of them this morning.

How To Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach be disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys be affected, you have a pinched look. So cure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and give a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Fifty cents per bottle.

The Royal is the highest grade baking powder known. Actual tests show it goes one-third further than any other brand.

A TWENTY DOLLAR BILL

Figures in a Charge of Grand Larceny Tried Monday Before Squire Miller.

Rasbury Wilson, colored, who conducts a restaurant on the Fleming pike, was given a hearing before Squire Miller Monday on a charge of grand larceny, and was discharged. The case is a rather peculiar one.

About two weeks ago, Mrs. Martha Travis, colored, stepped into Wilson's place to get something. In addition to some change she had a $20 bill in her pocketbook. Shortly after leaving the place she missed the bill.

Next morning Wilson went to a neighbor's house and exhibiting a $20 bill to a member of the family asked how much money it was. He was told, and later he requested the party to keep it quiet. The party learned of Mrs. Travis' loss, however, and told her of Wilson's actions.

Wilson was arrested, charged with larceny, and the case has been dragging along ever since. He told different tales of how he came by the bill,—one that he got it from some railroad men, and another that four white men came into his place with pistols one evening, forced him to give them something to eat and then gave him the bill in payment.

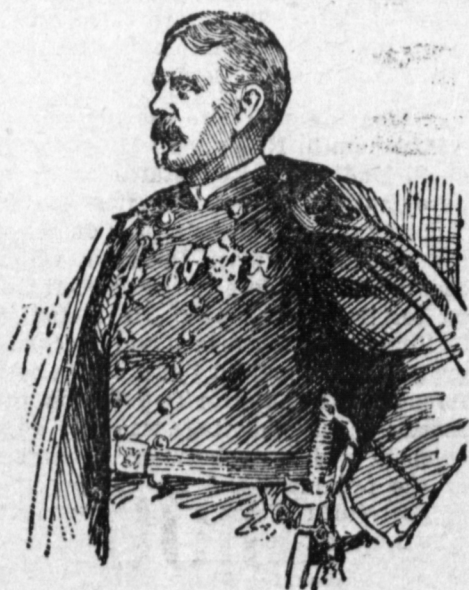

Mrs. Travis will probably place the case before the next grand jury.

CUBAN GOVERNMENT.

General Corbin's Opinion on the Problem There and in Porto Rico.

Adjutant General Henry C. Corbin, in talking about the arrangement for an army of occupation in Cuba and Porto Rico the other evening, said: "We will not know how many troops will be required in Cuba and Porto Rico until we hear from General Miles and the military commissioners. The commissioners will fully inform themselves of the sentiment among the people of the islands toward the United States. If the feeling is friendly, the problem will be partly solved; if, however, there are much dissatisfaction and disappointment among the people because the government is not turned over immediately to the natives, we shall have to keep quite a strong force there.

"The future is more promising in Porto Rico than in Cuba. The sentiment among the Porto Ricans seems to be strongly in favor of their becoming citizens of the United States. This feeling will doubtless be liberally met by the United States authorities, and local self government may be instituted. In Cuba there appears to be some irritation among the people because changes have not taken place in the local government more rapidly. A few troublesome politicians and a few roving bands of guerrillas are trying to make trouble. I believe, however, that the masses of people of Cuba have faith in the government of the United States and believe it will redeem every pledge it has made. In time this government will work out the question of self government in Cuba to the satisfaction of all."—Philadelphia Press.

The Coming of Baby.

When a baby comes to the house real happiness comes. The care and anxiety count for nothing against the clinging touch of the little hands and the sound of the little voice. The highest function given to human beings is bringing healthy, happy children into the world. Over thirty years ago the need of women appealed to Dr. Pierce, now chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. The result of his study improved by thirty years of practice is embodied in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It strengthens, purifies and makes healthy the organs distinctly feminine. It gives weak women the strength and health necessary for the production of healthy children and it makes the bearing of those children easy. It is sure to cure any weakness or derangement peculiar to women; stops pain, soothes inflammation, strengthens, purifies, invigorates.

New Dress Goods for Fall

One customer, who is a competent judge, after giving our Dress Goods stock a thorough and critical inspection, frankly remarked that after visiting many stores and examining their stocks of Dry Goods she could find nothing that in any way compared with ours. We believe this to be the opinion of not only scores but hundreds of people. You'll agree with others if you'll but give our Dress Goods department a look. At 29c. there is a great line of Serges and Novelties of regular 50-cent value. At 50c. there is roll after roll of black figured and colored Novelty goods, which is about the price the ordinary dealer pays for 'em—a saving to you of about 25 cents a yard. We have made a great effort to have the very best Crepon at $1.00 that could be procured, and have succeeded. Other Crepons at $1.35, $1.50 and $1.95. Some of these come in Black and the new shades of brown and green. And then there are Venetians, English Suitings, Cheviots (in the new rough effects) high grade Serges and Henriettas, all at prices that mean a saving to you of at least 25 per cent. A great and choice stock indeed, and well worthy of your early inspection.

Private John Cogan of the Sixth
Tells of the Suffering of Sick Soldiers.

He Pays a Fine Tribute to the Colored Boys in Blue—They Are Great Fighters.

The following interesting letter from Mr. John Cogan, a Mayslick boy in the Sixth U. S. Infantry, was received some days ago by his mother, Mrs. James Cogan, who has kindly granted the BULLETIN permission to publish it:

MONTAUK POINT, L. I., Aug. 22.
Dear Mother: I received your letter the 19th, was glad to hear from home once more. That was the first letter I got from you since the 14th of July; we did not get our mail when we were in Cuba very often. I wrote home very near every week but I guess you did not get them. I wrote to you, Maggie and Mike the day after the surrender. I thought one of you would get one, we had no chance to write from the first till the 19th of July, we were building trenches, roads and everything like that and had a hard time of it all the way through. My regiment was on the go all the time. We would go out on picket duty three days and then when we would come in camp our orderly would come riding in from headquarters with an order for the Sixth to go and work the roads so the artillery could get up in range and after that we would be ordered out to draw the Spanish fire so they could not see where we were planting our guns. Well, the health at this place is no better than in Cuba. In my camp we have only ten men out of sixty-three doing duty. We have not lost a man since we came here, but every man is not fit for anything but the hospital. It is a sight that I never can forget—men who three months ago were pictures of health are now living skeletons. You can be talking to one of the boys and an hour after you can see them carrying him to the hospital on a litter. It comes on you that quick; and ship loads coming in every day. Men, women and children come out from New York to see their friends and cannot recognize them, and when they see them brought out on the stretchers they turn their heads and cry like little children. It is terrible for one to look at, that is not used to it. I have seen so much of sickness that I do not pay much attention to it. If a man were to stop and look at every sick and wounded soldier he would be doing nothing else. You soon get hardened to all that. I did the 1st of July; after that I did not mind any thing. Our regiment will not number 150 for duty out of 448 when the Spanish surrendered. Not only ours but in the other divisions they are dying like hogs with the cholera. I tell you if it were not for the charity of the people and Clara Barton and her Red Cross Society we would all have died. She is the greatest woman in the world. I cannot say too much for her; she is simply a grand woman.

Well you ask me to tell you of my voyage. It was a very nice trip coming back. We had a mild sea except through the Windward Passage. We had a terrible rough sea through there and also at Cape Hatteras. We were six days coming from Santiago to Montauk. We got to see the ruined Spanish fleet, and Morro Castle at the mouth of the harbor and the Merrimac, the ship that Lieut. Hobson sunk to keep the Spanish fleet in the "bottle." It was a sight to see all this too, for they were in all shapes that one could imagine, and to see how the shells went through that heavy steel armor! You would think it was impossible.

When we landed here we were put in quarantine for five days, but we are out now and have a fine camp.

I learned to speak a little Spanish while I was over with them, and will wear the natives of Mayslick to death when I come home.

Well, I don't think I will soldier any more after peace is declared, that is if we have to go to Cuba again. I have got enough of the country. If we go to Cuba I know I will die. Still I suppose we go to Havana. The volunteers are waiting anxious, some of them, to go and establish the government. I think they should be allowed to do so, and give us a rest. We did the fighting; let them do the rest. I think the regular army has done its share.

To look in the papers you would think the Rough Riders did all the fighting, but if it had not been for the negroes of the Tenth Cavalry on June 24th they would have been massacred; not one of them would have been left to tell the tale. We had four regiments of negro soldiers and they are the very best of fighters. I would give one of them half of my blanket any time if I saw one that I could help. They fight like wild men when they go into battle. We had one regiment in our division, the Twenty-fourth Infantry, and I saw with my own eyes that they were good soldiers.

Some think the Sixth will never see Ft. Thomas again, at least for some time. I would like to be in Cincinnati for the G. A. R. parade very much, and would like to come home on a furlough, but I guess I will not for some time. I will wait and see what we are going to do first. All the boys who were sick are getting thirty days furlough and those that were wounded and all expenses paid, and if they are not well at the end of thirty days they can get some doctor to sign for them and get another thirty days. I have been getting along very nicely but I am all broke up. I do duty right along. I may be carried to the hospital before night, for I have seen fellows all right in the morning and before night carried away sick.

Well as paper is scarce and money too I must close. Your son,
JOHN.

CAMP WIKOFF TALES.

At Montauk the president was bowing right and left to the crowd when all of a sudden his eyes lighted on a man on a horse about 20 yards away. The man wore one of those brown canvas uniforms with canary trimmings, heavy eyeglasses and a happy sort of a grin. "Why, there's Colonel Roosevelt," exclaimed the president to Secretary Alger after staring at the man for a moment. "Colonel," called out the president, "I'm glad to see you."

Then the commander of the rough riders executed a remarkable maneuver. He forgot to make a formal dismount, but sort of fell off his animal in the way he does at the end of a race across the hills with a squad of his cow punchers. At the same time the president did a remarkable thing for a president to do. He stood up in his carriage, pushed open the door and, jumping out, started toward Colonel Roosevelt, who was coming toward him as fast as he could. The president held out his hand. Colonel Roosevelt struggled to pull off his right glove. He yanked at it desperately and finally inserted the ends of the fingers in his teeth and gave a mighty tug. Off came the glove, and a beatific smile came over the colonel's face as he grasped the president's hand. The crowd which had watched the performance tittered audibly. Nothing more cordial than the greeting between the president and Colonel Roosevelt could be imagined. The president just grinned all over.

"Colonel Roosevelt," he said, "I'm glad indeed to see you looking so well." "Thank you, Mr. President, there isn't a healthier man in the camp than I am. I am delighted to see you down here, sir, and hope you will enjoy the trip. I do want you to see my boys while you're here." "Oh, I will, colonel, I will," said the president as he got back into his carriage, and then the whole line started for General Wheeler's headquarters, led by the cavalry.

He was a big, broad shouldered Irishman, a fine figure of a soldier and one of the crack men of his regiment. With the purpose of getting a good view of President McKinley when he arrived at the Montauk Point station he had climbed to the roof of an unfinished building near by and lay flat on the sloping shingles, peering over the ridge. The presidential train pulled in, Mr. McKinley and his party got off, and in the midst of the greetings of the officers who had gathered to meet him there rose high over the buzz of voices a rich Irish brogue: "Oh, Billy McKinley! Mister President! Don't ye forget th' regulars. We fit th' best we know fer yer." All the officers turned in the direction of the voice, but the Irishman had pulled his head down below the ridge and was invisible from the side toward the station. A roar of laughter rose from the crowd. President McKinley, who had half turned, smiled and remarked, "A voice from the clouds."

For the first time in his life Rattlesnake Pete, one of the crack cowboy members of Roosevelt's rough riders, took an ocean bath today. About 50 members of the regiment escorted him to the wild sea waves to witness the performance. There was something of a surf rolling in, but Pete, who is not upon record as being afraid of anything on sea or land, opined that no waves like that could rattle him. "I'll go out farther than any of you," he said as he stripped off his clothing. "Some of you fellows start in and I'll come after."

Four of the troopers dashed in and plunged, and Pete tripped mincingly after them until he got about up to his knees, then stopped and looked uneasily at the white foam pouring in from a surge that had just broken. From beyond the other bathers exhorted him to come on, and shouts from the shore encouraged him. He plodded on a rod farther, jumped a baby wave, ducked his head under and assured his friends that he was all right. They kept urging him to go out farther, but the cowboy said he would stay where he was until he got used to the water. Presently, afar out, the other bathers beheld a big comber, frothing at the top, come racing in. Those on shore saw it, too, and with evil design, to divert Pete's attention from it, shouted to him in chorus: "Hey, Pete!" "Oh, Pete!" "Hi, Rattlesnake, turn around here."

"What's the matter?" answered the bather, turning his face toward the shore. "How do you like it, Pete?"

"Oh, it's all right. Kinder cold though."

"Why don't you swim out a little?"

"Goin' to in a minute."

By this time the others outside had dived under the breaker, and it was close under the unsuspecting cowboy. "Look behind you, Pete," yelled the chorus. Pete looked, beheld a green mountain with a white top hovering over him, gave a wild shriek and pushed for the shore. Too late!

There came a burst of thunder sound; The boy, oh, where was he?

There came also a burst of thunder mirth from the shore, for amid the foaming swirl where the wave had broken could be seen glimpses of Rattlesnake Pete, now a rampant foot, now a wildly waving arm, now the shining curve of a rear view. A smaller wave broke and rolled the struggling man to his knees, whence he arose to his feet and stood, with eyes tightly closed and face distorted.

"Say, say, say," he gasped, "where's 'ell's the shore? Which way is it? What was it hit me?"

"Not coming in, are you, Pete?" shouted the men on shore.

"Show me the way, somebody. Somebody's pullin' at my feet. My eyes are full of water. Wow! There's another."

The boom of another big breaker just behind him shook the beach, and on the wash of it he rolled and whirled well up toward the dry sand. He didn't stop going after regaining his feet until he had put 50 yards between himself and the water line. Then he proceeded to get into his clothes.

"What's the matter, Pete?" asked the crowd. "Had enough? Ain't scairt, are you?"

"No," said Pete sullenly. "Got a cramp."—New York Sun.
